2009-2010 Application Agreement - IMPORTANT - Please read carefully before completing this application.

- While there is no specific deadline to apply for housing, priority is given to those students who submit their applications on or before May 15. Note: requests for roommates or for living and learning communities may not be considered after the priority deadline of May 15.
- To apply for housing, newly admitted students should complete this application and submit it to the Office of Housing Services. No housing prepayment is required of newly admitted students. Continuing CUA students should submit this application and a $500 prepayment to Housing Services. A copy of the student's receipt should be included if the prepayment is made online via CardinalPAY.
- Submission of a completed application does not guarantee that you will receive a campus housing assignment. Assignments are made according to a variety of policies that are detailed on the Web site and through other Housing Services materials. Please review the Web site (<http://housing.cua.edu>) to ensure that you follow the updated policies and procedures.
- Room and board rates can be found in the Tuition and Fees Schedule available at <https://cardinalstation.cua.edu>.
- By signing and submitting this application, I am stating that I have read and accepted the terms of the Residence Hall and Dining Services Agreement that is detailed on the Housing Services Web site and in the Student Handbook, and is available upon request from Housing Services. I furthermore agree to abide by all university and residence hall regulations.
- I am aware that the $500 prepayment (submitted by continuing CUA students only) will be credited toward my fall semester housing charges.
- I understand that the Residence Hall and Dining Services Agreement is for the entire academic year (Aug. 29, 2009–May 9, 2010). Should my request to cancel housing and/or the dining plan be approved, I understand that I may be subject to cancellation fees. Any refund due to me will be made according to the Residence Hall and Dining Services Agreement.
- I verify that the information I am providing on this application is accurate.
- I, the undersigned, agree to guarantee payment of this contract.

Preference information is solicited on this application in the order that it will be considered.
While every attempt will be made to find you an assignment with your preferences, we cannot guarantee that your first preference will be available.

Roommate Matching Questionnaire — In the event that you do not request a roommate, or we are not able to accommodate your roommate request, we will use your answers to these questions to assign you a roommate.

1. Do you smoke?  Yes — Please Note: All CUA residence halls are nonsmoking.
2. On weeknights, I prefer to go to bed :  Early = no later than midnight  Late = sometime after midnight
3. On weekdays, I prefer to wake up:  Early = 9 a.m. or before  Mid-morning = 9–11 a.m.  Late = after 11 a.m.
4. I prefer a study environment that is:  Very Quiet = no background noise  Less Quiet = TV or music in the background

Roommate Preference — The Catholic University of America does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, age, national origin, religion or disability. If you have a roommate request, please indicate the student's information below. The student you wish to room with must also have requested you for the request to be considered. Roommate requests received before the Priority Deadline of May 15, 2009, will receive highest priority. Please note: Roommate requests are considered to take priority over building and room type preferences.

Living and Learning Communities — Optional

Students will have the opportunity, on a space-permitting basis, to participate in a living and learning community. Please refer to the University Living guide or the Residence Life Web site (<http://residencelife.cua.edu>) for detailed information about these options. Participation in a living and learning community requires the student to live on the floor associated with the community. Please note: If you choose a living and learning community and have a roommate preference, we may consider your living and learning community request over your roommate preference. Please place a mark next to the community you are interested in or rank order the communities if you are interested in more than one:

- _____ Honors Residential Community — Open to full-time undergraduate students who have been invited into the University Honors Program. This community is located in Regan Hall.
- _____ Residential College Program — Located in Unanue House for freshmen. Students interested in applying for Residential College must submit a one-page essay with this application. The essay should detail why the student would be a strong member of the Residential College and should focus on community, spirituality, service and leadership.
- _____ Special Interest Community: Politics and Current Events — Open to freshmen majoring in politics and those interested in the discussion of politics. Students in this community will interact with faculty and Residence Life staff and discuss current topics in the field of politics. This community is located in Spellman Hall.
- _____ Special Interest Community: Social Justice — Open to freshman interested in education and awareness related to issues of social justice and Catholic social teaching in the local community and throughout the world. Students in this community will interact with faculty and Residence Life staff and discuss current social justice topics and issues. This community is located in Spellman Hall.
- _____ Living as Leaders Community — Located in McDonald House for sophomore students and above, the Living as Leaders Community offers students interested in learning more about leadership an opportunity to live and learn together. Students in the Living as Leaders Community have the opportunity to participate in a series of leadership-based discussions and activities with university faculty and staff in order to learn more about leadership models, evaluate their own leadership style, and develop their leadership skills and abilities.

Dining Services Application

A dining plan is required for all students classified by CUA as freshmen or sophomores, including transfer students. Please select one of the dining plans available based on your class status. Only plan types listed under your class status are available for you to select. Consult the Dining Services Web site (<http://dining.cua.edu>) for more detailed information regarding Dining Services.
